

Storyline Online - Listen to a story or two

Fun Learning Activity:

Today you will be viewing people reading storybooks.

You may have seen some of these people in movies or on television. They are actors and famous people.

You might find some of your favourite story books in this video collection.

Enjoy viewing the books and choose some fun ways to respond to the stories.

What you will need:

- A device with internet access
- Paper & Drawing materials

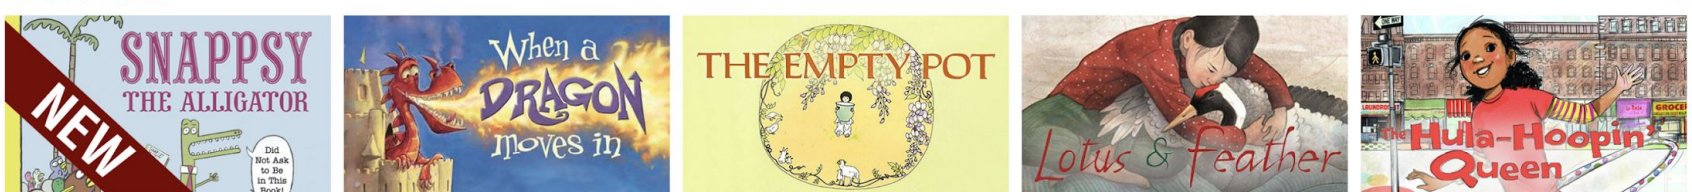

Instructions:

1. Visit this website, <https://www.storylineonline.net/>
2. Search for a story or two that you would like to view. Watch and listen.
3. Think of a way you would like to respond to the stories you have just heard. Here are some ideas,
 - a. Make a story board game with paper and pencils (or cardboard and textas)
 - b. Draw a picture about an interesting part of the story
 - c. Make some finger puppets of the main characters
 - d. Create an award certificate for the book with a recommendation for other readers
 - e. Make up a song to go with the story
 - f. Design a new, alternative front cover for the story
 - g. Write a sequel
